Land on 5.00 Acres

Bonsall, Bonsall, CA

5-Acre View Parcel in Bonsall â€” Prime Opportunity Rare opportunity to own approximately 5 acres in the highly desirable Bonsall area of North San Diego County. This expansive parcel offers a peaceful, rural setting with rolling terrain, natural vegetation, and the potential for stunning panoramic views of the surrounding hills and valleys. Ideal for building a custom estate, private retreat, or investment hold, the property provides ample space for a home, guest house, workshop, or agricultural use. Enjoy the privacy and tranquility of country living while still being conveniently located just minutes from Highway 76, I-15, and nearby shopping, dining, and schools. Utilities are nearby (buyer to verify), and the area is known for its mild climate, open space, and upscale rural character. Whether youâ€™re looking to build now or land bank for the future, this is a strong opportunity in a growing and sought-after community. Enjoy not one but two seasonal streams on the property. Also, County officials and community members broke ground Tuesday on a project that will transform a former golf course in North County into more than 24 acres of recreational amenities for the Bonsall. This a big horse and agricultural community with a new equestrian center being built right down the road. community.
