$2,285,000

Bedroom, Bathroom,
Land on 0.36 Acres

Olde Carlsbad, Carlsbad, CA

4332 Adams Street is one of three exceptional parcels ready for development, offering a rare shovel-ready opportunity to build a stunning custom coastal residence. Entitlements are already underway for a beautifully designed 4-bedroom, 4.5-bathroom home with a 3-car garage, thoughtfully planned to capture the character and views of this desirable Carlsbad neighborhood. The seller has completed significant pre-development work, including initial off-site improvements, submission of preliminary architectural plans to the City of Carlsbad and the Coastal Development Department, and has received tentative approval for the proposed home design. The lot has been roughly graded, with sewer and water utilities already brought to the property and electricity available at the street, helping streamline the path toward construction. Architectural plans and renderings are available for review and include a proposed floor plan, exterior design concepts, landscaping plans, and curated exterior finish selections, providing a clear vision for the home's final design. Situated in the highly desirable Olde Carlsbad neighborhood, this property offers the best of coastal Southern California living. This charming coastal corridor community provides the rare opportunity to live just minutes from the beach, the tranquil waters of Agua Hedionda Lagoon, and the vibrant shops, dining, and entertainment of Carlsbad Village. Olde Carlsbad is known for its elevated streets, custom residences, coastal charm, and breathtaking ocean views, making it one of the most sought-after neighborhoods in North San D
