La Costa Villas, Carlsbad, CA

Some neighborhoods simply have a feeling. This is one of them. Long before North County became one of Southern California's most sought-after places to live, La Costa was a destination. Built around the iconic La Costa Resort, this community became known for its championship golf, lush landscapes, and relaxed California lifestyle that attracted everyone from avid golfers to Hollywood icons like Frank Sinatra. Today, that same timeless charm lives on in this peaceful enclave, just a short stroll from the Omni La Costa Resort & Spa. Nestled among mature trees and beautifully maintained greenbelts, this popular floor plan offers two spacious bedrooms plus a versatile bonus room currently used as a third bedroom—perfect for guests, a home office, or additional living space. The home features a bright kitchen with quartz countertops, white cabinetry, modern hardware, and an inviting living room with a cozy fireplace and expansive windows that bring the beauty of the outdoors inside. What truly sets this home apart is its incredible connection to nature. Three private patio spaces are surrounded by mature trees and lush landscaping, creating peaceful outdoor retreats for morning coffee, dining al fresco, or simply unwinding at the end of the day. Every window frames lush greenery, giving the home the feeling of living in your own private garden. Just steps from your front door is one of the community's best-kept secrets—a sparkling, beautifully landscaped community pool tucked among the trees that feels more like a private resort than a neighborhood amenity. From relaxing poolside t
