Del Mar Heights, Del Mar, CA

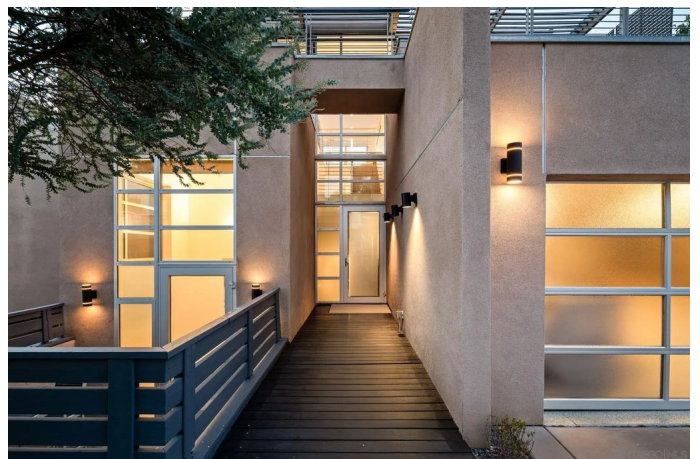

Modern minimalist design meets coastal living with sweeping ocean views at 2144 Cordero in Del Mar. This home delivers a front row seat to Del Mar sunsets over the Pacific framed by contemporary floor-to-ceiling windows that keep every room flooded with natural light. The flexible floor plan adapts to how you live, with space for an elevator and plenty of room to entertain inside and out across multiple decks, while the oversized backyard features a turf terrace with large spool and an expansive flat lower yard with garden beds, offering building opportunity. The attached ADU downstairs has its own private entrance, full kitchen, living room and bedroom—perfect for multigenerational living, guests, or rental income. The home is equipped with fully paid solar and a Tesla Powerwall, delivering energy independence and lower utility costs, plus EV charging for electric vehicle owners. The location covers everything Del Mar buyers ask for—a short drive or bike ride to Del Mar beaches, walking distance to Torrey Pines Reserve, and access to one of San Diego's highest rated school districts. With ocean views, paid solar, and a private ADU in coastal Del Mar, homes like this rarely come to market.
