Residential

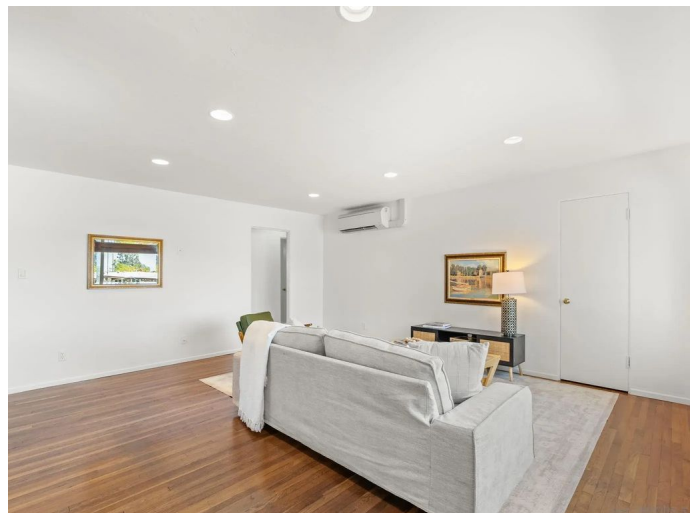

Olek Addition Unit 2, El Cajon, CA

I am excited to share a new property that has just hit the market. This cute one-story home is in a quiet neighborhood and features an amazing backyard with a covered back deck. Property has a variety of fruit trees, including Fuyu Persimmon, Hass Avocado, Meyer Lemon, Navel Orange, White and Red Dragon Fruit, and Mountain Cherry. Additionally, the property includes three versatile outbuildings: a 15x23 finished shed (with great potential for an ADU conversion), a 10x10 finished shed and 10x10 shed used for lawn equipment. The front of the property also features a dry streambed that functions beautifully during heavy rain. Best of all, the home is equipped with solar panels that keep monthly utility payments low, allowing you to run the air conditioning as much as you like.

Built in 1952
