Residential on 0.18 Acres

Country Club, La Jolla, CA

Prepare to be captivated by panoramic views of the Pacific Ocean from nearly every room within this Spanish Revival residence, where walls of glass, outdoor terraces, and a dedicated theater create a home designed as much for entertaining as for its spectacular setting. Upon entry, spacious, light-filled living areas flow to an expansive ocean-facing terrace, while all four en-suite, ocean-view bedrooms are privately situated upstairs. Additional decks and balconies offer a variety of spaces for enjoying the outdoors. Exposed wood beams, arched details, and fireplaces lend warmth and architectural character throughout. The kitchen pairs a generous island and professional-style range with a walk-in pantry and inviting breakfast nook. Movie nights take on a cinematic scale with a 13-foot screen, immersive sound, and tiered seating for eight in leather recliners. The primary retreat showcases sweeping coastal views, a fireplace, covered balcony, and dual walk-in closets. The primary bath is appointed with a spa tub, separate shower, and multiple vanities. From kayakers and passing boats animating the coastline by day to colorful skies at dusk, the ever-changing scenery is woven into daily life. With a coveted Country Club location near The Village and an extraordinary connection to the Pacific, this distinctive residence embodies the beauty and ease of La Jolla living.
