Rarely does a home offer this combination: newer construction, panoramic ocean and city views, a quiet corner location, gated security, resort amenities, and low HOA dues in La Jolla. Completed in 2011, this Emerald Cove corner residence shares only one wall, delivering three-sided natural light and the privacy of a detached home. Soaring 18-foot vaulted ceilings open to elegant main-level living. The chef's kitchen features professional-grade appliances, European cabinetry, and peninsula bar seating. A travertine fireplace anchors the family room with premium in-ceiling speakers throughout.
