7 Bedroom, 8.00 Bathroom, 6,919 sqft
Residential

Muirlands, La Jolla, CA

Perched on a premier site within La Jolla's coveted Muirlands enclave, this newly built contemporary estate is an architectural study in elevation, light, and privacy. From its commanding position, the residence captures sweeping, uninterrupted views of the Pacific Ocean, rolling golf greens, and the city skyline, forming a dramatic backdrop that defines every living space. The home is composed around a highly intentional layout, balancing grand volume with refined intimacy. Seven private bedroom suites, each with its own spa like bath are thoughtfully distributed for discretion and flexibility, including dual primary suites on separate levels, ideal for buyers seeking both privacy and hosting versatility. A bespoke interior palette of custom materials and clean modern lines underscores the home's architectural clarity. At its center, a chef's kitchen appointed with Wolf and Sub-Zero anchors expansive living spaces wrapped in walls of glass, dissolving boundaries between interior and horizon. Designed for seamless living, the residence includes elevator access, dual laundry rooms, and a substantial multi-vehicle garage, all integrated without compromise to form or function. Outdoors, the property unfolds as a private coastal retreat, where an infinity edge pool, fire pit, and outdoor kitchen hover above the landscape, curated for elegant entertaining and complete seclusion.
