Residential

La Jolla Muirlands, La Jolla, CA

Welcome to 6714 Muirlands Drive, La Jolla. This stunning residence has been fully renovated inside, showcasing an elegant Tudor-style exterior with a blend of traditional and modern interior upgrades. Originally built in 1933, this historic La Jolla home is currently under review for Mills Act Historic designation, potentially offering property tax reductions for future owners. As you enter through the front gate, you're greeted by a charming front patio area adorned with bright wildflowers, brick pathways, and multiple seating areas. Stepping through the front door, you'll find rich, dark wood floors interspersed with grey and white checkered tiles, wood-beamed ceilings, and clean white walls. The living room is a relaxing haven, complete with a gas fireplace, cozy lounging areas, and picture windows offering views of the backyard and blue ocean. The vintage arched entryways lead you to the dining room, where you can enjoy meals with stunning views of the Pacific. The heart of the home is the kitchen, featuring white marble countertops, custom white cabinetry, double sinks, double dishwashers, and a spacious kitchen island with ample seating. The kitchen also includes an adjacent dining area and coffee nook, with black custom cabinetry, under-counter refrigerators and a built-in window bench overlooking the blossoming flowers in the front courtyard. Outside, you'll find a magnificent pool and spa, a wrap-around wood deck with multiple seating areas, an outdoor kitchen/BBQ area, a brand-new wood sauna, a vegetable garden, and ample grassy space for kids and pets”
