Country Club, La Jolla, CA

Perched at the pinnacle of Foxhill La Jolla, the proposed home for Lot One is a striking minimalist homage to mid-century modern design. With its clean lines and expansive overhangs, this home pairs timeless elegance with bold travertine surfaces that seamlessly integrate into the natural surroundings. At more than 10,000 square feet, this 6-bedroom, 8.5-bath residence masterfully balances modern sophistication with tranquil warmth. The home's light, earthy stone reflects the golden hues of the setting sun, accentuating its architectural significance while blending into the serene coastal backdrop. The residence offers 180-degree ocean views at the front and a private nature preserve to the rear, creating a seamless connection between expansive panoramas and intimate tranquility. A front-facing infinity pool mirrors the coastal horizon, enhancing the home's visual harmony, while a sleek suspended bridgeway connects the living room to a private courtyard and lush lightwell gardens. The simplicity of the home's form allows the beauty of its materiality and thoughtful outdoor spaces to shine, embodying the very essence of mid-century modern design.
