Designed by award winning architect Stuart Baesel, this condo is located in a private enclave of just five detached homes, tucked away from the main road and backing to a serene open canyon. The spacious primary suite has a cozy fireplace, walk-in closet and opens onto a large deck. The second bedroom adjoins a former third bedroom, which is now an office space, with access to a delightful balcony. The living room is focused on the fireplace and two story windows, giving loads of light to the unit.
