Residential

Mt helix, La Mesa, CA

Once in a while a very special home comes along and this is it! Welcome to this warm and inviting home where timeless character meets effortless indoor-outdoor living. The beautifully designed kitchen is the heart of this house featuring stunning natural wood cabinetry, striking black countertop, a generous center island with built in cook top and prep sink for both everyday living and entertaining! At the center of it all is an inviting outdoor dining area beneath a large umbrella, surrounded by warm string lighting that creates an enchanting atmosphere as the sun goes down. A wood privacy fence, mature bamboo and lush landscaping provide a peaceful, secluded setting that feels wonderfully removed from the everyday! The combination of the spacious yard including several patios and sitting areas, thoughtful landscaping, abundant outdoor lighting and generous entertaining areas makes this a home designed for enjoying California living—whether hosting friends for an evening dinner or simply unwinding in your own private oasis. Recent upgrades include refinished hardwood floors, newly remodeled hall bath, fresh landscape and interior and exterior paint. There is also a new water heater and sink in the laundry room. The downstairs bar has a newly tiled backsplash and new sink. The downstairs could be used as another potential rental as it has separate entrances. There is also a whole separate area that has been used as a VRBO with the airstream (Does not convey) and includes a full bath. There is also a PAID SOLAR!!!!

Built in 1962
