$741,000

3 Bedroom, 2.00 Bathroom, 962 sqft
Residential on 0.18 Acres

Lincoln Acres, National City, CA

Welcome to 1732 Gamma Street, remodeled in February 2024, this home delivers complete peace of mind with extensive structural, electrical, and cosmetic upgrades throughout. Step into the light-filled, open-concept heart of the home, where the kitchen and dining areas flow together seamlessly. The kitchen features brand-new white shaker cabinets, sleek new appliances—including a refrigerator, stove, and microwave—and upgraded recessed LED lighting that creates a bright, welcoming atmosphere. The entire home benefits from a comprehensive electrical overhaul, including rewiring, all-new outlets, new switches, and recessed lighting extending through the living room, hallway, and kitchen. The thoughtful floor plan offers three comfortable bedrooms, each enhanced with new drywall and energy-efficient exterior insulation for year-round comfort. All-new interior doors, baseboards, door casings, and modern hardware. The main bathroom features a new vanity, sink, toilet, and mirror, while the newly added second bathroom boasts a premium porcelain walk-in shower. The property sits on a massive 8,000-square-foot lot, offering a blank canvas with unlimited potential. It is perfectly sized to build a detached ADU or to design your own private backyard oasis. Fresh new concrete has also been poured around the entire perimeter of the home, ensuring clean lines and excellent drainage. Perfectly positioned for commuters, this property provides immediate access to the 805 freeway minutes from downtown San Diego, Coronado Island, and the Mexican border.
