Del Mar Country Club, Rancho Santa Fe, CA

Where architectural presence meets an extraordinary sense of privacy, this transformed Del Mar Country Club estate unfolds from sweeping fairway views at the front to expansive grounds framed by the hills beyond. A dramatic two-story entry with a sweeping staircase, cascading glass globe chandelier, and wall of glass overlooks the pool and private grounds. DuChateau Savanna wide-plank European white oak flooring carries through interiors with sculptural lighting, feature walls, Pella Impervia windows, and Black Diamond steel doors. Windows and glass doors frame the fairway, grounds, and surrounding landscape. The family room is anchored by a quartzite slab fireplace and statement wine display, with French doors to the patio. The kitchen centers around a generous island with Wolf and Sub-Zero appliances and flows to the daily dining area. The formal dining room overlooks the fairway. The main-level primary suite is defined by a floor-to-ceiling stone fireplace, two custom walk-in closets, and a full wall of glass opening directly to the pool and grounds. The bath features dual vanities set against a full quartzite slab wall, a soaking tub, and walk-in shower. French doors open directly to a private barrel sauna. An office with its own fireplace and separate exterior entrance completes the main level. Upstairs are two en-suite bedrooms with private balconies overlooking the fairway, a theater room, and an additional bedroom sharing a Jack-and-Jill bath with the gym. A detached casita with its own entrance and garage offers privacy for guests. Outside, a California room with f
