Residential

Roseville, San Diego, CA

Discover a tasteful blend of vintage character and modern comfort at 3204 Ingelow Street in Point Loma. Set on a spacious corner lot, this inviting home showcases beautiful original hardwood flooring, distinctive vintage bathroom tile, and a cozy fireplace that preserve its timeless appeal. The extensively remodeled kitchen features white cabinetry, quartz-style countertops, stainless-steel appliances, a gas range, colorful tile backsplash, and a generous peninsula with bar seating. The open living area and abundant built-in storage provide a flexible and welcoming layout filled with natural light. The primary suite features French doors opening directly to a private, vine-covered patio—an ideal setting for morning coffee or quiet relaxation. Outside, the backyard also offers mature landscaping and lawn space for entertaining or everyday enjoyment. Meaningful improvements include new electrical, added air conditioning, and fresh exterior paint. With its preserved architectural details, substantial upgrades, and sought-after Point Loma location, this special home is ready for its next chapter.
