2 Bedroom, 1.00 Bathroom, 1,149 sqft

Residential on 0.15 Acres

Loma Portal, San Diego, CA

This charming ranch style retreat is tucked into a quiet street in Point Loma's sought-after Plumosa Park neighborhood, just minutes from the beach. This home has been retrofitted with central heat & air along with triple pane windows by the Quieter Homes Program offering energy efficiency without sacrificing character. The home's interior has 3/4 inch Acacia hardwood floors throughout with custom baseboards, crown molding, and ceiling fans adding elegance and charm. The living/dining area has a brick wood burning fireplace, a window seat with hidden storage beneath, and custom French doors. The kitchen features granite countertops, custom cabinets with under mount lighting, LG appliances, and a stainless steel sink. It also features an island with custom lights, bar stools for additional seating, and a built in wine fridge. The bathroom has a walk in shower with custom tile. It also features bronze fixtures, a large vanity, and cabinets. The bedrooms are large and have hardwood flooring, crown molding, and closets. The back yard and outdoor living area includes an arbor and large farm table with unique church pews that can seat up to 12 guests for entertaining. It also features a gas fireplace. In the corner is a raised fountain surrounded by Italian Cypress trees adding privacy. The yard is split level with views of the private canyon & flower beds, and an attached garage for additional storage. On the side of the home there is an additional brick patio where you can enjoy the Seaworld fireworks & drone displays. Step inside & see all that this charming home has to offer!
