Timeless Spanish Colonial Charm North Mission Hills This 1930s Spanish Colonial home in prime North Mission Hills pairs original architectural character with thoughtful modern updates. A living room fireplace showcases original tile by master craftsman Ernest Batchelder, complemented by the era's signature square and round windows. Three bedrooms, two baths have been thoughtfully updated, brand-new hardwood floors, and central air offer contemporary comfort throughout. Upstairs, a private balcony off the family room and primary suite invites indoor-outdoor living, and perfect for morning coffee or evening sunsets over Mission Hills. Detached one-car garage. This is a home for the buyer who wants character with none of the compromise and original 1930s craftsmanship, move-in-ready comfort, and a rare blend of vintage soul and modern livability in one of Mission Hills' most sought after pockets.

Built in 1930
