Mission Hills, San Diego, CA

This Victorian inspired beauty in the Franklin Court section of Mission Hills is a sophisticated blend of historic character, elevated design, and modern luxury. Thoughtfully remodeled while preserving the details that give the home its soul, the original doors and hardware remain as a graceful nod to its past. Every new element has been carefully curated to feel refined, timeless, and perfectly suited to the original architecture. White oak Shaker cabinetry is paired with a custom range hood finished in Moroccan clay, striking fluted Marquina marble, designer selected porcelain tile, and TruCore luxury vinyl plank flooring. A layered combination of polished nickel, champagne bronze, and brass adds warmth, dimension, and a subtle touch of glamour throughout. The generously oversized bedrooms offer an exceptional sense of space and comfort. Outside, the private pool house with its own bathroom provides remarkable flexibility as an additional bedroom, luxurious guest retreat, stylish home office, or serene poolside escape. Located in one of San Diego's most coveted historic neighborhoods, this Mission Hills home offers a beautiful setting for morning walks, evening strolls, and exploring nearby restaurants, coffee shops, boutiques, and neighborhood favorites. Historic charm. Modern sophistication. Effortless personality. This is more than a beautiful remodel. It is a rare 1921 Mission Hills residence, thoughtfully restored and reintroduced for the way we live today.
